First choice	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Second choice	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

1. Why did you choose this programme of study?

2. What are your intentions once you have finished this programme, eg. further study?

3. What are your intentions once you leave Ama Training Group?

(The purpose of these questions is to ensure that you are choosing appropriate study to match your planned intentions. Where there is a mismatch between your intentions and the programme applied for, we may suggest a more suitable programme at Ama Training Group or at another suitable New Zealand education institution that will better prepare you for your intentions).

Cancellation and Refund Policy for International Students

FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS INCORPORATING THE CONDITIONS FOR TERMINATING ENROLMENT AND THE CONDITIONS FOR TERMINATING THE CONTRACT

Refunds of programme fees will only be made in accordance with the following policy:

By accepting a place in a programme of study at Ama Training Group a student enters a contract with Ama Training Group for the period of one academic year (or the length of the programme if it is less than one year). This contract means there is an obligation to pay the fee for the year (or for the length of the shorter programme).

Students who wish to defer to the following semester must notify Ama Training Group two weeks prior to the programme commencement.

There is no automatic right to a refund of fees if a student changes his/her mind about studying at Ama Training Group.

In normal circumstances, no refunds will be given after programme/course commencement. If a student decides to withdraw from a programme/course once enrolment has been finalised the student will need to complete a Withdrawal Form which can be obtained from the International office.

Any request for a refund must be made in writing to Ama Training Group. The request must include a detailed explanation of the reasons for withdrawal from the programme/course. At this time, the student's family and agent may be notified by Ama Training Group that a request for refund has been received.

If a refund is given, it will be paid in NZ dollars and paid by direct credit either to:

- the original payer's nominated bank account, or
- if the Refund Authorisation Letter is completed by the original payer, to another party's bank account

Note: If the student is not the original payer, permission in writing from the original payer will need to be sought before the funds can be transferred to the student.

Consideration of Refund Applications

Applications for refunds will be considered under the following categories, which may require supporting documentation:

Full Refunds

- Immigration New Zealand (INZ) has refused to grant an initial visa for study in New Zealand
- Visa extension is refused by INZ
- Ama Training Group is unable to proceed with the programme/course offered.
- If the programme contracted with Ama Training Group is cancelled for whatever reason, then the student shall be entitled to a total refund of programme fees but shall not be entitled to any other compensation, costs or consequential damages of whatsoever nature.

Part Refunds

- An international student in a semester-based programme, who gains Permanent Residency will not receive a refund of fees for the semester in which residency is granted. However, they will be treated as a New Zealand Permanent Resident for the following semester and refunded any international fees paid beyond the semester in which residency was granted.
- International students in programmes designed with full year non-semester based courses must pay the international fees for the full year, regardless of the date Permanent Residence has been granted during that year.
- If a student wishes to withdraw their application, and notice is received by Ama Training Group within the two weeks prior to course commencement, a cancellation fee of 45% of the tuition fee will be charged.
- Special circumstances of a compassionate nature, as approved by Ama Training Group, may necessitate withdrawal from a programme. Supporting information must be supplied in writing from the student, family and agent (if applicable).

No Refunds

- In the event of inadequate attendance and/or achievement resulting in the termination of enrolment and the contract, no refund is payable
- In the event of a disciplinary action resulting in the termination of enrolment and the contract, no refund is payable.
